HABITAT FOR HUMANITY – COLVILLE VALLEY PARTNERS

Building houses in partnership with God's people in need.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION AS A HABITAT CANDIDATE FAMILY

Habitat for Humanity – Colville Valley Partners (HFH-CVP) is a nonprofit ecumenical Christian housing ministry seeking to eliminate substandard housing in the Colville Valley. Our goal is to enter into partnership with low-income families currently living in inadequate housing who wish to own their own home but have not been able to get the help they need anywhere else. Using private donation and volunteer labor, we build simple decent, affordable homes and sell them to selected families at no interest.

The criteria used to select a Habitat for Humanity – Colville Valley Partners family are:

1. Need for adequate housing
2. Ability to pay
3. Willingness to partner with HFH-CVP
4. Residence in the Colville Valley for at least one year immediately prior to application.

The following explanations further define the criteria listed above, please read them carefully.

(1) NEED FOR ADEQUATE HOUSING: The following problems, with some examples, are used in considering whether the present housing of applicants is inadequate. Not all of these problems need be present in order for your home to be considered inadequate.

- Structural problems – No indoor plumbing or inadequate water supply, excessive heating costs or inadequate heating system, unsafe electrical wiring, leaky roof.
- Overcrowded living quarters – More than three family members sharing a bedroom or school-age children of opposite sex sharing a bedroom.
- Health and safety issues – No ready means of outside exit from a basement bedroom or unavoidable dangers to children.
- Cost of housing – Family is paying more than 30 percent of its gross income for rent (or house payment including taxes and insurance) not including utilities and phone costs.
- Other –

(2) ABILITY TO PAY: The following items are used to determine whether applicants have the resources necessary to purchase a Habitat home.

- Income level – Your total family gross income must fall between 30 and 60 percent of the median income for Stevens County (See attached chart).
- Steady source of income – You must have a steady source of income to cover the expenses associated with buying a Habitat home. The family income should be equal to approximately four times the monthly Habitat house payment (currently approximately $500). Although donated labor and materials keep the cost of Habitat homes low, they are not free! The homes we provide require timely monthly interest-free mortgage payments. The mortgage payment includes homeowner insurance and property taxes.

- Debt-to-income ratio – Ideally, debt payments each month (such as credit care or loan payments), excluding house payments should not exceed 5-10 percent of the family’s total monthly income. Monthly debt payments, including house payment, should not exceed 40 percent of the family’s total monthly gross income.
- Monthly payment consistency – Your family can be considered if you have demonstrated ability to make regular, on time, monthly payments for rent, utilities, and other obligations.
- Bankruptcy, liens, and judgments – Your family has not declared bankruptcy within 7 years of application review and you have no bad debts, liens, or judgments that cannot be cleared prior to the closing on your new home.
- Conventional financing – Your family has applied for and been unable to obtain suitable bank financing to purchase a home and has applied for other available housing programs and been denied, such as the First Time Homebuyers Program (Rural Resources). If you have not applied for these, Habitat will assist you in exploring these options; you may still qualify for a Habitat home. TALK TO US!
- Closing costs – Before your family moves into your new home, you must have saved enough money to pay the closing costs of approximately $2,400 at the time the final documents are signed, plus the first monthly house payment of approximately $500.

(3) WILLINGNESS TO PARTNER: Habitat requires active participation from the selected family as well as the community. The following items demonstrate the family’s willingness to partner with HFH-CVP.

- Sweat equity – These hours can be contributed by your family, extended family, and friends. A minimum of 500 sweat equity hours of volunteer labor is required to build your home or do other Habitat work. This sweat equity must continue until your home is complete even if you have accumulated 500 hours before that time. You, like our other volunteers, do not need building experience.
- Training workshops – Attendance at workshops on home ownership will be required.
- Habitat activities – Board and committee meetings, fund-raising and public relations events are held frequently. You may be asked to attend and/or participate in some of these activities. You need also be aware that for a short time you will be involved in a publicized program and will be visible to the public.
- Application completion – Applications must be filled out thoughtfully and completely and all required documentation must be provided in a timely manner. Credit, employer, landlord references, and criminal and sexual offender background checks will be requested and checked.

(4) RESIDENCE: We build homes in the communities of Chewelah, Colville, and Kettle Falls. Applicants must have lived in the general vicinity of this service area for at least a full year immediately prior to application. We are seeking families who have a long-term commitment to staying in the Colville Valley.

- Habitat is not an emergency housing program. Our process takes time because it may be up to two years following selection before a Habitat home is completed.

- An applicant must be willing to accept a home in any neighborhood of the community in which the home will be built.
- The selected family must be willing to accept the home that is designed by HFH-CVP as determined by the size and special needs of your family.

Becoming a Habitat for Humanity homeowner is not easy. It involves many long hours of hard work and a large commitment of time and patience on your part. The reward, however, is being able to purchase a decent, affordable home for yourself and family. If you fit our guidelines and are interested in being considered as a candidate family for HFH-CVP, we want to hear from you. Please contact us at the number or address below for more information and an application form.
